

Forming a business entity is a series of technical, mechanical steps guided by one major decision, namely, to choose the right business entity.

At Rosenn, Jenkins & Greenwald, the attorneys in our Business & Finance Department and our team of professionals help new and veteran business people with the tricky decision of what type of business entity to form. Protecting business owners' personal liability while achieving the right tax treatment helps get the entity, its owners, and present and future employees off to a great start. At Rosenn, Jenkins & Greenwald, we enjoy helping businesses at each stage of their path towards success.

If you need help forming a business entity or addressing any business challenge, contact Lee S. Piatt or one of the other attorneys in our Business & Finance Department at 570-826-5600.