

In this week's Community Involvement Spotlight, we recognize Lee Piatt and his service with the Wyoming County Community Health Foundation (WCCHF) to improve the health and wellness of those living in Wyoming County and the surrounding communities.

WCCHF is a 501(c)(3) charitable foundation that supports the health of residents of Wyoming and Susquehanna County by raising funds and awareness of various public health needs. Originally formed to support the former Tyler Memorial Hospital, WCCHF now supports numerous community-based nonprofits through competitive grants awarded twice a year. Lee is a Member of WCCHF's Board of Directors and the Chair of its Nominating Committee.

To learn more about WCCHF, visit <https://wyoming-county-health.org/>.