

In this week's Community Involvement Spotlight, we recognize Thomas J. Campenni and his service with the West Pittston Library.

The West Pittston Library was founded in 1873, making it the oldest library in Luzerne County. Their mission is to enrich the lives of their community members by creating an environment for growth, discovery and connection. Tom currently serves as a Member of the West Pittston Library's Board of Trustees.

To learn more about the West Pittston Library, visit <https://wplibrary.org/>