

Congratulations to Lee S. Piatt on his Presentation of the Legal Portion of the Seminar “Keeping Your Non-Profit Afloat During Challenging Times”

Congratulations to our own Lee S. Piatt on his presentation of the legal portion of the seminar titled “Keeping Your Non-Profit Afloat During Challenging Times” as part of the Wilkes University Accountant Continuing Legal Education live Webinar on July 14th. Lee’s presentation addressed a number of important subjects for non-profit entities including: (i) Alternative Management and Tax Structures for Non-profit Entities; (ii) Making Changes in Mission or Purpose; (iii) Reorganizations of Related Non-Profit Entities; and (iv) Tips on handling COVID and similar crises, including PPP Loans, employment law issues, and the challenges of satisfying stakeholders.

Attorneys in the Business & Finance Department at RJG routinely help non-profit clients with a variety of issues, including those covered by Lee’s presentation. If you need help with your non-profit entity, contact Lee Piatt (lpatt@rjglaw.com) or any other attorney in RJG’s Business & Finance Department at 570-826-5600.
