

On February 2, Zachary J. Watkins and Robert L. Gawlas of our Litigation Department, along with Marley E. Mullery of our Labor & Employment Practice Group, took part in the Mock Trial District Competition. Additionally, on February 9, Ryan Brannon from our Real Estate Department participated in the Competition. Zach is a co-coordinator for the Competition and Rob, Marley, and Ryan served as jurors.

Mock trials provide great opportunities for legal experience, helping today's high school students become tomorrow's lawyers. Thank you Zach, Rob, Marley and Ryan for donating your time to the Competition!
