

Meet Attorney Paul T. Rushton!

Paul counsels business clients on corporate law, commercial transactions, business formation, employment agreements, governance agreements, shareholder disputes, and mergers, acquisitions and divestitures.

His clients come from numerous industries including the medical field, architects, engineers, higher education, manufacturing, technology, insurance and investment brokerage, construction, water bottling, landscapers, hunting and lake clubs, restaurants, bars, food brokerage, advertising, real estate investments, stone, timber, oil and gas, water haulers, and other businesses servicing the oil and gas industry.

Paul currently serves as the Chair of the Firm's Business and Finance Department, Compensation Committee, and Practice Development Committee. He is also a member of the Firm's Management Committee and Paralegal Committee and a partner in the Firm.

In addition to his practice, Paul energetically looks for ways to give back to his community. He serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Business and Industry and as a member of the Board of Directors of United Way of Wyoming Valley.

Named a Rising Star by Law and Politics, Paul was previously recognized by the Times Leader as one of the area's "Top 40 Under Forty" professionals.

To learn more about Paul or to schedule a consultation with him, please visit

<https://www.rjglaw.com/attorneys/paul-t-rushton/>