

On July 14, Lee S. Piatt Will Present the Legal Portion of the Live Webinar: “Keeping Your Non-Profit Afloat During Challenging Times”

On July 14, 2021, Lee S. Piatt, Esq of the Business & Finance Department of Rosenn, Jenkins & Greenwald, L.L.P. will be presenting the legal portion of the seminar titled, “Keeping Your Non-Profit Afloat During Challenging Times” as a Wilkes University Accountant Continuing Legal Education live Webinar.

Topics Lee will discuss include: Alternative Management and Tax Structures for Non-profit Entities, Making Changes in Mission or Purpose; and Reorganizations of Related Non-Profit Entities, as well as tips on handling COVID and similar crises, including PPP Loans, employment law issues, and the challenges of satisfying stakeholders.

Registration and more information on the seminar may be found at: <https://bit.ly/3yy6eMn>

Attorneys in the Business & Finance Department at RJG routinely help Northeastern Pennsylvania non-profit clients engaged in economic development, health and human services, education, recreation and religion. If you need help with your non-profit or business in these challenging times, contact Lee Piatt (lpatt@rjglaw.com) or any other attorney in RJG’s Business & Finance Department at 570-826-5600.