

Paul T. Rushton to Present “Choice of Entity and Governance Agreement Considerations for Closely-Held Businesses” on August 11 for the Wilkes University Small Business Development Center

On August 11, 2021, Paul T. Rushton, the Chair of our Business & Finance Department, will be presenting a training webinar for the Wilkes University Small Business Development Center titled “Choice of Entity and Governance Agreement Considerations for Closely-Held Businesses”.

Paul’s seminar will identify a number of issues that should be considered by closely-held business owners in selecting the most preferable form of entity for their business. Paul will also highlight the various provisions that are typically included in a Governance Agreement for a closely-held business and provide suggestions for closely-held business owners to carefully consider in order to tailor such provisions to match their circumstances and goals. Participants in the training webinar will be afforded time to ask questions about these subjects, as well.

Attorneys in our Business & Finance Department frequently assist closely-held business owners address these important issues. If you need help with these or any other issues affecting your business, contact Paul (prushton@rjglaw.com) or any other attorney in RIG’s Business & Finance Department at 570-826-5600.
