

In this week's Professional Activity Profile, we recognize the service of Paul T. Rushton as the Vice Chair of the Council of the Business Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and a member of the Section's Executive Committee.

The province of the Business Law Section is the development and practical working of the law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States, relating to business and nonprofit corporations, partnerships, and associations, to banks and banking, and to the law relating to mercantile and commercial transactions, including the fields of bankruptcy, insolvency, and receiverships and of business regulation law. The Council is the governing body of the Section.

Paul also currently serves as the Section's Vice Chair and previously held the offices of Secretary and Treasurer with the Section.
