

This past Friday, United Way of Wyoming Valley held its annual Helping Kids Thrive Drive where they collected donations to help stock 21 Nurse's Pantries in 7 school districts. These donations, including school supplies and hygiene items, will directly support students in our community. Our firm, attorneys and staff were more than happy to support this endeavor by contributing and collecting items for the drive!