

In honor of National Volunteer Month in April, Volunteers in Medicine gave a shoutout on social media to all of their core volunteers, including our own Thomas J. MacNeely, the Chair of our Real Estate Department.

Volunteers in Medicine provides free primary and preventative medical, dental, and behavioral health services to low-income families in Luzerne County. Tom has been volunteering with them for years. Thank you for donating your time to this great cause, Tom!